

CINCINNATI—ALMOST ON TIME.

"Carolina Special" Makes Fine Trip From Charleston—Marking Epoch in Travel.

Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 3.—Robert Y. Hayne's dream of a commercial empire will further be realized if the united efforts of Cincinnati and the territory through which the "Carolina Special" passes counts for aught. That was the sentiment breathed here today, in the meeting of the representatives from the South and those of the West, who received the visitors here on the first trip of the new train.

From the Sunny South and warm weather, to the snow laden cold of this region, the first north-bound train of the through route was brought yesterday and today, arriving here less than one hour late, the delay being caused by encountering a snow storm at Danville.

Mayor Receives Party.

Mayor Louis Schwab, of Cincinnati, welcomed the visitors at his office in the City Hall this afternoon, and Col. August Kohn, of Columbia, presented in an appropriate little speech the letters from the mayors of Charleston, Columbia, Spartanburg and Asheville. Mr. Kohn referred to the dream of a century for the accomplishment of the opening of the through route from Charleston to Cincinnati. Mayor Schwab showed himself to be familiar with South Carolina history and ideals in his response. Traffic Passenger Manager S. H. Hardwick, of the Southern, told of the work of President Finley in putting on the "Carolina Special" and of the railway history connected therewith.

Entertained at Dinner.

At the Business Men's club the newspaper representatives and railway officials were entertained at a dinner. Mr. L. C. Powell, vice-president of the Southern and the Queen and Crescent route, who was in Columbia during the "merger" suit, told of Cincinnati's greatness and of the desire to co-operate with and do business with the Southern States, especially with that territory tapped by the new through route. Mr. Robert R. Reynolds, who was president of the Ohio Valley exposition, hoped the new route would unite in a commercial way the interests of the two sections. He told of the good work that could be done by expositions in this connection.

Picturesque Route.

It is a picturesque route through which the "Carolina Special" moved from Charleston to this city. From the standpoint of sight-seeing, no more delightful trip could be imagined.

Although this trip was "no frolic," every one had a good time. Also were the South's interests well advertised.

ELECTIONS BY LEGISLATURE.

Several Vacancies Will Have to be Filled—Those on Judicial Bench.

Columbia State.

There are several elections of importance to be held by the general assembly, and probably the most important will be that of another associate justice provided the constitutional amendment is ratified. The term of no member of the supreme court will expire this year. Several candidates for the new justiceship have been mentioned, among them being Judge R. C. Watts, Judge R. W. Memminger, M. L. Bonham, Thos. B. Fraser and W. B. Gruber.

The general assembly will elect two circuit judges. The term of Judge George W. Gage of the Sixth circuit will expire this year. There will have to be elected a successor to the late Judge Chas. G. Dantler. This will be for his unexpired term of three years. The term of office of William Elliott of this city as code commissioner will expire this year. He was elected in 1903 to take the place of W. Townsend, who resigned.

There will be two vacancies on the board of directors of the State penitentiary. The term of office of J. M. Smith and A. K. Sanders will expire this year. Their successors will have to be elected. The term of D. J. Griffith as superintendent of the penitentiary will expire next year.

There will be a number of vacancies in the boards of trustees of Winthrop, Citadel, Clemson, University of South Carolina and the State negro college to be filled. It is almost impossible to tell who will have to be elected as few of the trustees ever qualify with the secretary of state, although required to do so by law.

F. H. McMaster as insurance commissioner and Miss L. H. LaBorde as State librarian were elected at the last session of the general assembly.

This winter season has brought out more pretty and catchy music than any other season in a number of years, and it will sound fine on that beautiful "Carolina Special" plane. The Herald

TRAIN IS HELD UP.

Negro Porter Killed—Money and Jewels Taken by Bandits—Trainmen Also Suffer.

Ogden, Utah, Jan. 3.—Southern Pacific train No. 1, the Overland limited, westbound, was held up by two masked bandits at an early hour this morning at Reese, nine miles west of Ogden. One negro porter, William Davis, was shot and instantly killed and another porter, A. W. Taylor, was mortally wounded. A passenger was slightly wounded. One hundred passengers on the train were relieved of their valuables. The robbers did not attempt to enter the express car, but devoted their entire attention to the Pullmans, where they made a rich haul among the California-bound passengers, holding the train for more than an hour.

The train proceeded westward. No passenger escaped the robbers and the trainmen also lost their money and jewelry. At 12.30 this morning Conductor Cunningham advised the superintendent's office at this place of the hold-up. The sheriff and police department were immediately notified, and posses left the city for the scene of the hold-up in automobiles and on a special train. Posses from the nearby towns are working toward Reese.

Two masked men stopped the train at the little watering station by throwing the red light on the signal stand toward the approaching locomotive. As it came to a standstill the bandits covered the engineer and fireman with their revolvers and held them until the conductor rushed up to investigate the delay. He too, was placed under guard.

One of the robbers left the trainmen in charge of his companion and started through the train from the forward end. He encountered two porters on his way and when they disregarded his commands he shot one down and wounded another. A curious passenger also was wounded.

The shots aroused the occupants of the cars and when the hold-up man appeared with an open sack and a menacing pistol, the passengers were perfectly willing to contribute to his collection. He went through the entire train, stopping at every berth and making a deliberate search. After completing their work the robbers drove away in a vehicle.

About four miles from Reese they met two girls who were returning home from a dance. One of the robbers very politely requested them to hand over their purses and to "beat it." Although frightened the girls succeeded in getting a good description of the bandits, which tallied with that furnished by the passengers and train crew.

After robbing the girls, the daughters of Bishop Waymont, of the Mormon church at Warren, the highwaymen drove toward the city.

Early this morning no report had been received from the five posses that are now in the field.

Two Bandits Tracked.

Ogden, Utah, Jan. 3.—A posse of officers heavily armed have tracked two bandits believed to have held up the Overland limited at Reese last midnight, to a point four miles beyond the scene of the hold-up.

They are said to be headed toward this city. The money loss among passengers was from $2,000 to $2,500.

PUTS BURGLAR TO FLIGHT.

Young Greenwood Woman Uses Hairpin Effectively on Intruder.

Greenwood, Jan. 3.—A daring attempt at burglary, which almost terminated in the more terrible crime of murder, was frustrated here this morning at the residence of Mr. Joe Pinson, on Reynolds street. His daughter, Miss Ruth, a Winthrop student, who expected to return to Winthrop today, heard a noise in the parlor about 6 o'clock. She pushed open the door and was seized by some one within, dragged inside and a cloth or mask thrown over her head and an attempt made to push something in her mouth. She could not scream, but jerked out a hairpin and began jabbing and scratching her assailant. He in turn made a savage cut, directed at her head, with some sharp instrument and cut off almost half her hair, which was done up on her head. Miss Pinson then fainted, and the noise of her fall attracted her father, who ran into the room. The burglar jumped out of a window and escaped. It is believed he has on his face marks of the hairpin used.

The articles which the burglar intended to take away were found outside the window. They included a large number of wedding presents belonging to a sister, who was married last Thursday. Although every effort has been made to find a clue, nothing has yet developed to show who the

COMFORTING WORDS.

Many a Newberry Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Newberry readers.

Mrs. J. M. Wheeler, Prosperity, S. C., says: "My kidneys were disordered for a long time, causing terrible pains through my loins and limbs. There was also a constant ache in my back and on some occasions, I could scarcely get about. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and annoyed me greatly. I consulted several physicians and tried any number of remedies, but did not improve in the least. I had about given up hope of ever being cured when my son-in-law procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills for me at W. E. Pelham & Son's Drug Store. He had read about them being good for kidney trouble and told me to try them. I did so and after I had taken the contents of two boxes, my backache had disappeared and my kidneys had been restored to their normal condition. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to many of my friends and shall continue to do so."
